

Professional Bio

Rev. Dr. Loretta Iannicelli is both an Ordained Minister and Ordained Healthcare/Crisis Chaplain with the American Evangelistic Association. She has worked locally, regionally and nationally in ministry and in corporate America serving leaders, first responders, and persons in crises for more than a decade.

Dr. Iannicelli's Pastoral Care ministry is derived from various disciplines. She holds a Doctorate Degree in Religious Education from Chesapeake Bible College and Seminary, Maryland; a Master's of Divinity Degree and Counseling Certification from Andover/Yale Divinity School (formally Andover Newton Theological School as part of the Boston Theological Institute); Specialized Crisis Chaplaincy training in trauma, disaster, and suicide from the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF); and Healthcare Chaplaincy training through Harvard Divinity School's Field Education Program.

Dr. Iannicelli serves as the Pastor in Residence and US Missions Community Care Pastor at Judah City Church in Marlboro, Massachusetts; Dean of Admissions for Chesapeake Bible College and Seminary in Maryland; and has served as the Interim Protestant Chaplain at Newton-Wellesley Hospital, an inter-disciplinary facility in Newton Massachusetts. She is the CISM Fire Chaplain for the Boston Fire/Metro Fire Critical Incident Stress Management Team; holds the position of Pastoral Coach for Barnabas Ministries, Inc. - a National Pastoral Care Network serving pastors in their formation of John 17:23 Care Groups, and has a Spiritual Care & Counseling Practice that helps many in time of transition.

As founding Pastor, President and CEO of Equip Services, Inc., Dr. Iannicelli founded Equip with the aim to bring a culture of care to those facing need with a belief that there is value, purpose, potential, and dignity in compassionately loving, serving, and caring for the needs of others. She hosts enrichment conferences and is an engaging preacher and speaker focused on Pastoral Care initiatives that meet relevant need.

Loretta has four adult children, Anthony, Marlena, Angel, and Sandy and a granddaughter, Angeline.
